

IU1 Technology Council Meeting
October 24, 2005
Minutes

Those in Attendance: Mark Batis, Jeremy Costa, Robert Fetsko, Todd Hamel, Brody Konkus, Joanna Mangiapane, Nina Manno, Susan Moskal, Earl Neel, Ron Reyer, Bert Ries, Dan Rossi, Wendy Rusmiser, Jim Saccamano, Adam Sninchock, Toni Sulkowski, Kristin Van Strien

Kristin welcomed everyone and introduced Jim Saccamano, new Technology Coordinator from West Greene SD.

Highlights from the IMS Director's Meeting were shared by Kristin. Questions were taken regarding OpenSource software. Kristin asked if any were interested in having a speaker on the software.

The Getting To One grant will be awarded to 20 school district's. Applications are due in November.

NetTrekker was demonstrated using the 'Take A Tour' button on their website.

I-Safe is sponsored by the Department of Justice. January 5 & 6 training at IU1. Visit their website at www.i-safe.org

December 7 - there will be an Apple Podcasting Workshop with Tony Vincent at MCIU. You will learn how a classroom teacher organizes his classroom and assists his students in creating audio to share with the world. For more information, contact Marilyn Melstein 610-755-9377.

United Streaming – If any school district needs training, contact Kristin Van Strien @ 724-938-3241 x244.

Kristin reminded everyone of the E-Rate due dates.

Greg Palmer from MAGPI gave a PowerPoint presentation. Greg is the Director of MAGPI at University of Pennsylvania. MAGPI delivers regional infrastructure in a cost-effective manner and promotes applications for the region's research and education communities through high performance network technology (I2). For more information, visit their website for some of the exciting projects where they are involved. www.magpi.org. IU1 hopes to partner with MAGPI for application development.

RWAN / E-Fund / Act 183 Grant – Joanna gave an update on E-Fund.

Q&A

Joanna reminded everyone that the next meeting will be November 10, 2005.

Meeting was adjourned and lunch was served.